MY MISSION

Devin's mission is to work with companies and organizations that serve men to offer them tools to reach their full potential. We are sensitive to the needs of men impacted by the Justice System and seek to assist in lowering the recidivism rate and bridging the family gap. We believe success will create stronger men, families, and communities in this arena. This passion has created opportunities for Devin to participate (speaking, workshops, etc.) at various national events. For more information, visit www.devindcoleman.com.

SERVICES

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Dad's Importance to the Family: Data shows the impact of a father missing from the family and his child's life.

Decision Making, Lessons Learned from College to Prison to College Graduate

Turning the Curve: Over the Obstacles of life

WORKSHOPS

Guy Talk: In this day and age, young men (13-18) have life coming at them quickly. In this workshop, I'll help them develop an independent thought process.

Fatherhood Engagement: Approximately 18.3 million children are in a home without a father. The data shows how fatherhood engagement increases the likelihood of a child's future success.

Turning the Curve: None of us are exempt from life's challenges. We want to "Turn the Curve" to overcome adversity but don't know how.

CONSULTING

Are you an organization or business that works with or serves men?

Are you looking for ways to connect with men and give them tools to re-engage, support, and provide for their families?

As a single father, I understand the challenges of maintaining a home and a career. Let me help you identify ways to serve men in a way that strengthens them, their families, and their communities.
