Testimonials:

“

The global impact of, “Fatherhood Fridays” have been felt far and wide. His words have challenged fathers from the east coast to west coast and all the way into the Caribbean. Beyond Devin’s phenomenal character and impeccable integrity, we have been thoroughly impressed and deeply inspired with his consistency. He is a man of his word and changed the trajectory of several fathers, for the good, without organization. Devin’s wisdom, words of encouragement and fatherly insights are life changing, mindset altering and heart assuring.

I would like to thank Mr. Devin for being one of the most consistent guys I’ve had the opportunity to partner with. His guy talk sessions has opened the eyes of so many of our young men for the better. His testimony is one of a kind and he uses it to show our young men that as long as they are willing to change for the better, nothing can stop them from achieving greatness. He is such an inspiration to everyone he meets. We are blessed to have someone like him pouring so much positivity into the teens. He will forever be a part of our Y family.

Mr. Coleman has always been refreshing to the Johnson family YMCA through his Guy Talk. His program offers a secure space for candid conversations, allowing young men to open up and discuss their experiences and the issues they face. Mr. Coleman has established a trust circle where young men can discuss various topics, including emotional intelligence and how to overcome societal expectations of black youth. The program also explores what it means to be a man and encourages breaking away from traditional stereotypes.
